MRS. THARP-

It's amazing isn't it?

Through all the trouble and talking and gum chewing you stayed sane and now you're finally getting us out into the world. Honestly... you've been a good teacher and I'll always remember your patience.

DEB.

Mrs. Tharp,

You're a good teacher (even though I haven't had any classes under you) and a great class sponsor. You've been a lot of help to all of us.

Rick Sr. '72

Mrs. Tharp-

I hope you miss my reading because it was something I couldn't resist doing especially in your class because it was a lot of fun having you make me stop. Well to the serious part of my signing this. We're going to miss you a lot next year. Especially the Home Ec III girls ALAS (Home Ec II).

PAM

P.S. If you ever take another class of Home Ec and you have someone who likes to read don't let them enter with a book or you'll regret it the rest of the year.

Mrs. Tharp,

You are a great teacher. My only wish is that you weren't going away. You have had the patience to help everyone with all their problems. I am speaking for all the students you have. You have been like a second mother. Love, Rose Jackie

I will miss having you next year. I have had a lot of fun in your classes. You have helped me very much.

Love ya much

& great as you are. Good luck with
